

Davenport, Evans, Hurwitz & Smith Scholarship

South Dakota's largest law firm was founded in 1939 when Holton Davenport, a distinguished Sioux Falls lawyer, and Ellsworth E. Evans, an experienced litigator and assistant attorney general, entered into a partnership. Since then the law firm has experienced steady growth, but its emphasis has always been on quality. New associates come from the top of law school graduating classes, law review editors, moot court participants, and judicial clerks.

That emphasis carries over to the scholarship awards the firm sponsors each spring. For more than 20 years, Davenport, Evans, Hurwitz & Smith has rewarded students in surrounding counties for their achievements in the classroom. Each year, the firm awards nine scholarships totaling $15,000 to students enrolling in South Dakota's colleges and universities.
